

GLAZER'S DISTRIBUTORS ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF LATEST BEER ACQUISITION

DALLAS, Texas (January 4, 2011) Glazer's Distributors is pleased to announce the completion of its acquisition of Bolls Distributing Company, which is an 800,000 case beer distributor servicing 120 customers in Texarkana, Arkansas and Texas. Bolls is the MillerCoors house, along with many other important strategic beer suppliers.

Glazer's President Sheldon "Shelly" Stein, commented, "We are excited by our latest beer acquisition. This is part of our overall corporate strategy to aggressively expand our footprint in the beer distribution business."

Glazer's Corporate Vice President Malt Beverages, Mark SoRelle, said, "We are pleased to add another distributorship to our beer footprint. The marketing area we have just acquired creates an expansion of the MillerCoors territory for Glazer's in both Arkansas and Texas."

Mr. Jack Bolls, previous owner of Bolls Distributing, will serve in a consultant capacity. Jack Bolls said, "We are very pleased with the Glazer's purchase of our company, and the smooth process in the transition. Glazer's is a pleasure to work with and our valued employees are pleased to join the Glazer Team."

Glazer's also announces that a key figure from Bolls Distributing will serve in a leadership role going forward. Marc Cavazos, previously General Manager, will be Glazer's Sales Manager.

About Glazer's Distributors

Glazer's, one of the country's largest privately held companies, currently operates in 11 states and is one of the nation's largest distributors of wine, spirits and malt products. The company has operations in Arizona, Arkansas, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, Oklahoma and Texas. The third generation family business celebrated its 100th birthday in 2009. For more information, visit www.glazers.com.