

GLAZER'S DISTRIBUTORS ANNOUNCES COMPLETION OF NATCHITOCHE'S BEVERAGE INC. ACQUISITION

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
January 31, 2011

Contact: Louis Zweig
(972) 702-0900 ext. 389
lzweig@glazers.com

DALLAS – Glazer's Distributors is pleased to announce the completion of its acquisition of Natchitoches Beverage Inc., which is a 200,000 case beer distributor servicing three Louisiana parishes. Natchitoches Beverage Inc. was the Miller/Heineken house.

Glazer's President, Sheldon "Shelly" Stein, commented, "We are excited by our latest beer acquisition. This is part of our overall corporate strategy to aggressively expand our portfolio in the beer distribution business."

Glazer's Corporate Vice President Malt Beverages, Mark SoRelle, said, "We are pleased to add another distributorship to our beer footprint. The marketing area we have just acquired enables us to expand our Miller territory for Glazer's in Louisiana."

Steve Wiggins, the previous co-owner of Natchitoches Beverage, said, "We are very pleased with Glazer's purchase of our company. Glazer's is a pleasure to work with and we are happy to be joining the Glazer Team."

Glazer's also announces that Paul Khoury, previous co-owner of Natchitoches Beverage Inc., will serve in a leadership role with the company going forward.

About Glazer's Distributors

Glazer's currently operates in 11 states and is one of the nation's largest distributors of wine, spirits and malt products. The company has operations in Arizona, Arkansas, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Ohio, Oklahoma and Texas. The third generation family business celebrated its 100th birthday in 2009. For more information, visit www.glazers.com.